Dated this the 19th day of September, 2007.

JUDGMENT

Petitioner's apprehension is that respondents will draw electric line over his property for giving connection to some of his neighbours. If line is to cross over private property, the applicant for electric connection has to necessarily obtain consent, failing which matter has to be referred to the District Magistrate for decision. The W.P. is accordingly disposed of directing the respondents to draw line over private property, whether it be petitioner's or any other person's only with consent or after getting objection overruled by the District Magistrate or Additional District Magistrate.
